

Native Nations Dance Theater

is an award winning professional

American Indian Dance Company and the only one of its kind in Philadelphia, PA. NNDT has become a world-wide resource for American Indian educational presentations and their interactive educational programs feature: History, culture, dance, flute music, drumming and stories from various native nations across North American and South America. Their programs have been seen by millions, their photos have been published in major newspapers, the company has made special public appearances in many parades, films, radio and television specials. As a company they are featured in "We Shall Remain", a television documentary mini series directed by Chris Eyre and Rick Burns which aired World Wide in April of 2009. NNDT has performed for the United States Embassy, Federal Institutions, the Royal Family in England, The British Empire and Commonwealth Museum, Disney, Pepsi Co,

The American Experience, PBS, The ABC Network, The Discovery Theater, The Seminole Tribe of Florida, St. Joseph's Indian School, Cheyenne River Sioux Tribe, The People's Center in Montana, Aberdeen School District, The Maryland School District, The Academy of Natural Science in Philadelphia, The Prince Music Theater and the Smithsonian's National Museum of the American Indian to name a few. NNDT was founded and directed by Vaughnda Hilton (Blackfeet/Seminole/Creek) in 1991 and is co-directed by Delwin Fiddler

Jr., (Lakota), a descendant of Chief Elk Head and Chief Sitting Bull. We have toured Central Asia, Canada, Greece and the Middle East.

Website Links:

DIRECTORY PAGE

www.nndt.homestead.com/directory.html

CONCERTS & PROGRAMS AVAILABLE YEAR ROUND!

Home Office: (215) 397-4740

Voice Mail (215) 747-6330

Email

wabliziwi@aol.com

delwin@nativeweb.net

Vaughnda@nativeweb.net

